

Diving duck hunt for four – Put another check mark on your bucket list with this adventure hunting divers from a layout boat! Just a short ferry ride across Death's Door, Washington Island rises out of Lake Michigan to greet visitors to this majestic sportsman's playground off the northernmost point of Wisconsin's Door County peninsula. Its sheltered inlets and secluded coves become tempting havens for diving ducks seeking safe waters to raft upon. This unsurpassed opportunity links you with the purist of waterfowlers from generations past.

Wait anxiously in coffin-like craft for the sudden appearance of wingtips slightly above the watery horizon or the jet-like sound of locked wings passing unexpectedly through or around your decoy rigs. Work as teams alternating turns between two layout boats and upright blinds.

In between hunts, Captain Dave Heath and his crew at Heath Outdoors welcome you to their camp and accommodate your needs with hearty dinner meals, an open bar, and a relaxing atmosphere to reflect on the experiences of the day.

This waterfowlers dream hunt includes:

- 3-nights lodging*
- Evening dinner meals, open bar, and soft drinks*
- 2-days diver duck hunting*
- All guide services, decoy rigs, and boating equipment*
- Transfers to and from the hunt*

Not included in this package: airfare, transportation to and from the airport, hunting licenses and stamps, guns, shells, morning and noon meals, ferry fees (approx. $13.50 round trip per person) and tips. All hunting activities are subject to weather conditions and the safety of the participants. Extra days hunting can be negotiated with Heath Outdoors. Costs associated with these items are the responsibility of the purchaser. This trip is available from October thru November during the 2022 Wisconsin waterfowl season.
