

Goals

To protect threatened and endangered anadromous fish populations and pumping requirements for adjacent agriculture, managed wetlands (federal, state and private), and City of Chico wastewater facility without a significant effect upon river meanders.

